John 10:10

Video Study Guide

AdvancedBiblicalFoundations.org

John 10:10: Video Study Guide © 2026, Terry Moore

Unless otherwise noted, all Scripture is taken from the NEW KING JAMES VERSION copyright © 1982 Thomas Nelson, Inc.

Please do not reproduce this manual or portions of this manual in any way without written permission from:

Advanced Biblical Foundations
www.advancedbiblicalfoundations.org
e-mail: contact@advancedbiblicalfoundations.org

Formated 7/2026

Table of Contents

Session 1: Disobedience 1

Session 2: Authority 7

Session 3: Inner Vows 12

Session 4: The Occult 17

Session 5: Soul Ties 22

ADVANCED BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS

John 10:10

Session 1: Disobedience

Session 1 of 5

About This Series

Jesus made one of the clearest statements in all of Scripture when He said, "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly." (John 10:10)

This series explores the contrast between the abundant life Jesus came to give and the ways the enemy seeks to rob believers of that life. Through biblical teaching and practical application, we examine several spiritual issues that can hinder our walk with Christ—including disobedience, misunderstanding spiritual authority, inner vows, involvement with the occult, and unhealthy soul ties.

Each session is designed to help you identify areas where the enemy may have gained influence, understand what God's Word says about true freedom, and apply biblical principles that lead to lasting victory. As you grow in your relationship with Jesus and submit every area of your life to His Lordship, you can experience the abundant life He promised—one marked by freedom, peace, purpose, and the transforming power of the Holy Spirit.

Session 1 Overview

Many believers struggle to walk in the freedom Christ has provided because they do not fully understand the spiritual authority God has entrusted to them. In this session, we examine the biblical foundation of authority, where it comes from, and how it is exercised through our relationship with Jesus Christ. Rather than living in fear of the enemy, believers are called to stand confidently in the authority Christ secured through His death and resurrection.

As we learn to submit to God's authority and exercise the authority He has given us, we are equipped to resist the enemy, overcome spiritual opposition, and live the abundant life Jesus promised in John 10:10. This session provides practical, biblical insight into walking in victory by understanding our position and authority in Christ.

The Anchor Scripture

John 10:10 (NKJV) — The Series Anchor Verse

"The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

Key Scriptures — Session 1

Deuteronomy 30:19–20 (NKJV)

"I call heaven and earth as witnesses today against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live; that you may love the Lord your God, that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him, for He is your life and the length of your days..."

James 1:22–25 (NKJV)

"But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves... But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it... this one will be blessed in what he does."

James 4:7 (NKJV)

"Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you."

John 14:23 (NKJV)

"Jesus answered and said to him, 'If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him.'"

John 4:23-24 (NKJV)

But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.

Romans 6:16 (NKJV)

"Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness?"

Key Themes

1. God's Commands Lead to Life

From the very beginning, God has given His people instructions not to restrict them, but to protect them and lead them into abundant life. Every command in Scripture reflects His love, wisdom, and desire for our good. Obedience is not about earning God's favor—it is about trusting His heart and walking in the path He has prepared.

Jesus came that we might have life more abundantly (John 10:10). As we choose to follow Him, we position ourselves to experience His blessings, peace, and purpose.

---

2. Disobedience Opens the Door to the Enemy

While God desires to bless and protect His children, disobedience creates opportunities for the enemy to steal, kill, and destroy. Satan cannot override God's authority, but he looks for areas where believers step outside of God's will and expose themselves to unnecessary spiritual struggles.

Disobedience is never simply breaking a rule—it is stepping outside of God's protective boundaries. Recognizing these areas allows us to repent, receive forgiveness, and walk again in the freedom Christ provides.

---

3. Obedience Is an Expression of Love

Jesus taught that genuine love for Him is demonstrated through obedience. Our obedience does not make God love us more, nor does our failure make Him love us less. Rather, obedience is the natural response of a heart that trusts Him.

As believers mature, obedience becomes less about obligation and more about relationship. We obey because we know our Heavenly Father is good and His ways always lead to life.

---

4. Repentance Restores Fellowship

One of God's greatest gifts is the opportunity to repent. Repentance is not merely feeling sorry for sin; it is changing our mind, turning back to God, and aligning ourselves once again with His truth.

Because of Christ's finished work on the cross, believers can confidently confess their sins, receive forgiveness, and continue walking in fellowship with God. Repentance closes doors that disobedience has opened and restores us to the freedom Jesus purchased for us.

5. Choosing Life Every Day

Obedience is not simply a one-time decision but a daily choice. Throughout life, believers continually choose whether to trust God's wisdom or follow their own understanding. Every decision either moves us closer to the abundant life Jesus promised or toward the consequences of living independently from Him.

God continually invites His children to choose life—to trust Him, obey His Word, and walk in the freedom, peace, and victory that are found in Christ alone.

Reflection Questions

📝 Reflection Questions

1. John 10:10 reveals two opposing purposes: the enemy comes to steal, kill, and destroy, while Jesus came to give abundant life. Looking at your own life, where have you seen the consequences of living outside of God's will, and where have you experienced the blessings of walking in obedience?
2. Disobedience is often more than a single action—it can reveal an area where we struggle to fully trust God. Is there an area of your life where you find it difficult to surrender to His direction? What do you believe is holding you back?
3. James 4:7 tells us to "submit to God" before resisting the devil. Why do you think submission to God is essential to walking in spiritual victory? What does biblical submission look like in everyday life?
4. Repentance is not about condemnation but about returning to God's way of living. Is there anything the Holy Spirit has been prompting you to address or surrender? What practical step can you take to respond in obedience?
5. God continually invites us to choose life by trusting and obeying Him. As you reflect on this session, what is one specific area where you sense God calling you to greater obedience so you can experience the abundant life Jesus promised?

Personal Application

✅ Application Steps

1. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal any area of your life where disobedience has hindered your relationship with God. Spend time in prayer, confess what He reveals, and thank Him for His forgiveness and grace.
2. Read James 1:22–25 and James 4:7 each day this week. As you read, ask yourself, "Am I simply hearing God's Word, or am I putting it into practice?" Look for one opportunity each day to respond in obedience.
3. Identify one area where you know God has been calling you to obey. Take one practical step this week to act on His direction, trusting that His commands are always for your good.
4. Memorize John 10:10 and reflect on the contrast between the enemy's purpose and Christ's promise of abundant life. Ask God to help you recognize choices that lead to life rather than those that give the enemy an opportunity to steal, kill, and destroy.
5. End each day this week by asking the Lord, "Was there any area where I failed to trust or obey You today?" If He brings something to mind, quickly repent, receive His forgiveness, and thank Him for the grace to walk in greater obedience tomorrow.

Series Overview

Session	Title	Focus
1	Disobedience	Understanding how disobedience opens the door to the enemy and how obedience positions us to experience God's abundant life.
2	Authority	Discovering the authority every believer has in Christ and learning to stand firm against the enemy through submission to God.
3	Inner Vows	Identifying the harmful promises we make in response to pain and learning how God's truth brings healing, freedom, and restoration.
4	The Occult	Recognizing the spiritual dangers of occult practices and understanding how to renounce them and walk fully in Christ's freedom.
5	Soul Ties	Understanding healthy and unhealthy spiritual relationships and learning how Christ brings healing, restoration, and freedom from ungodly attachments.

Notes

ADVANCED BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS

John 10:10

Session 2: Authority

Session 2 of 5

Session 2 Overview

Understanding spiritual authority is essential to living the abundant life Jesus promised. Many believers know they have authority in Christ, yet they struggle to exercise it because they do not fully understand where that authority comes from or how it is to be used. In this session, we examine the biblical foundation of authority and discover that true authority begins with submission to God.

Jesus has given every believer authority over the works of the enemy, but that authority is never exercised independently of Him. As we learn to walk in humility, obedience, and dependence upon Christ, we can confidently resist the devil, overcome spiritual opposition, and fulfill God's purpose for our lives.

The Anchor Scripture

John 10:10 (NKJV) — The Series Anchor Verse

"The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

Key Scriptures

Matthew 28:18–20 (NKJV)

"And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, 'All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations...'"

Luke 10:19 (NKJV)

"Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you."

James 4:7 (NKJV)
"Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you."

Ephesians 1:19–23 (NKJV)
"...and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe... which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand... far above all principality and power and might and dominion..."

Ephesians 2:4–6 (NKJV)
"But God, who is rich in mercy... made us alive together with Christ... and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus."

Colossians 2:13–15 (NKJV)
"Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it."

1 Peter 5:8–9 (NKJV)
"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Resist him, steadfast in the faith..."

Key Themes

1. All Authority Belongs to Jesus

Following His resurrection, Jesus declared that all authority in heaven and on earth had been given to Him. Every authority exercised by the believer flows from His victory. We do not operate in our own strength or position—we stand in the authority of the risen Christ.

---

2. Authority Begins with Submission

James 4:7 provides the biblical order for spiritual victory: first submit to God, then resist the devil. Submission is not weakness; it is placing ourselves under God's authority so that we can faithfully exercise the authority He has entrusted to us.

---

3. Our Position Determines Our Authority

Through Christ, believers have been raised up and seated with Him in the heavenly places. This position is not earned by our performance but secured by God's grace. Understanding who we are in Christ enables us to live with confidence rather than fear.

---

4. The Enemy Has Been Defeated

Jesus' death and resurrection completely defeated the powers of darkness. Although the enemy continues to oppose believers, he no longer possesses ultimate authority. Christians are called to enforce Christ's victory by standing firm in faith and resisting every attack of the enemy.

---

5. Walking in Authority Requires Faith and Obedience

Spiritual authority is not exercised through fear, emotion, or human effort. It is expressed through faith in God's Word, dependence on the Holy Spirit, and obedience to Christ. As believers remain rooted in Him, they can minister with confidence, wisdom, and humility.

Reflection Questions

📝 Reflection Questions

1. When you think about spiritual authority, do you tend to approach it with confidence or uncertainty? What has shaped your understanding of the authority Christ has given you?
2. James 4:7 teaches that submission to God comes before resisting the devil. Are there areas of your life where greater submission to God would strengthen your ability to stand against the enemy?
3. Ephesians teaches that believers are seated with Christ in the heavenly places. How does understanding your position in Christ change the way you view spiritual battles?

4. Have there been times when you relied on your own strength instead of trusting Christ's authority? What did you learn from those experiences?
5. In what area of your life do you need to begin exercising the authority God has already given you with greater faith and confidence?

Personal Application

✅ Application Steps

1. Read James 4:7 each morning this week. Begin each day by consciously submitting every area of your life to God before asking Him to help you stand against the enemy.
2. Spend time reading Ephesians 1:19–23 and Ephesians 2:4–6. Reflect on what it means to be seated with Christ and ask the Holy Spirit to help you understand your identity and authority in Him.
3. Identify one area where fear or discouragement has kept you from walking confidently in Christ. Replace fearful thoughts with God's promises and choose to stand in faith.
4. Thank Jesus each day for His victory over sin, death, and the powers of darkness. Remember that your authority comes from Him, not from your own ability or experience.
5. Pray for an opportunity this week to encourage someone else by reminding them of the authority and victory they have through Jesus Christ.

Connecting the Sessions

Session	Focus of Revelation
1	Obedience keeps us walking within God's protective boundaries. As we submit to Him, we position ourselves to experience the abundant life Jesus promised.
2	Our authority comes from Jesus. As we submit to God's authority, we can confidently stand against the enemy and walk in the victory Christ has already won.

Notes

ADVANCED BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS

John 10:10

Session 3: Inner Vows

Session 3 of 5

Session 3 Overview

Many of the struggles believers face are rooted not only in outward circumstances but also in unresolved issues within the heart. Anger that is left unresolved, unforgiveness, bitter judgments, and inner vows can quietly give the enemy opportunities to steal the abundant life Jesus came to provide.

In this session, we discover how choosing forgiveness, extending mercy, and surrendering our hearts to God brings freedom from the burdens of the past. As God's truth replaces lies and self-imposed limitations, we experience healing, restoration, and the abundant life found in Christ.

The Anchor Scripture

John 10:10 (NKJV) — The Series Anchor Verse

"The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

Key Scriptures

John 10:10 (NKJV)

"The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

Ephesians 4:26–27 (NKJV)

"Be angry, and do not sin: do not let the sun go down on your wrath, nor give place to the devil."

Matthew 5:44 (NKJV)
"But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you."

Matthew 6:14–15 (NKJV)
"For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses."

Hebrews 12:14–15 (NKJV)
"Pursue peace with all people, and holiness... lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled."

Matthew 7:1–2 (NKJV)
"Judge not, that you be not judged. For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged..."

James 2:13 (NKJV)
"For judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment."

Key Themes

1. Unresolved Anger Gives the Enemy Opportunity

Anger is a normal human emotion, but when it is left unresolved it creates an opportunity for the enemy to gain influence. God calls us to deal with anger quickly through forgiveness rather than allowing it to grow into bitterness and resentment.

2. Forgiveness Is a Choice That Brings Freedom

Biblical forgiveness is not based on feelings or on whether someone deserves it. It is a deliberate choice to release others into God's hands. Forgiveness frees our own hearts and allows us to walk in the abundant life Christ provides.

3. Bitter Judgments Produce Spiritual Bondage

When we judge others harshly, we often establish standards that eventually affect our own lives. God calls believers to extend mercy rather than live with a critical spirit, trusting Him to be the righteous Judge.

4. Inner Vows Can Shape Our Lives

Statements such as "I'll never..." often arise from pain and disappointment. These inner vows can become self-imposed strongholds that influence our decisions and relationships. God's truth breaks these unhealthy agreements and restores freedom.

5. God's Grace Leads to Healing and Restoration

Jesus came to heal the brokenhearted and set people free. As we confess our anger, release judgments, forgive others, and surrender inner vows, God's grace transforms our hearts and enables us to walk in greater peace and freedom.

Reflection Questions

📝 Reflection Questions

1. Are there situations or people that still stir anger in your heart? Have you fully surrendered those hurts to God?
2. Is there someone you need to forgive—not because they deserve it, but because you desire the freedom Christ offers?
3. Have you formed any "I'll never..." statements or inner vows because of painful experiences? How might those be influencing your life today?
4. Do you find yourself being overly critical or judgmental toward others? What would it look like to extend the same mercy God has shown you?
5. What step of obedience can you take this week to replace bitterness with forgiveness and experience greater freedom in Christ?

Personal Application

✅ Application Steps

1. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal any unresolved anger, unforgiveness, bitter judgments, or inner vows that may still be influencing your life. Write down what He brings to your attention.
2. Prayerfully choose to forgive every person who has hurt or disappointed you. Release them to God, even if your emotions have not yet caught up with your decision.
3. Identify any inner vows you have made (such as "I'll never trust again" or "I'll never be like..."). Renounce those statements and replace them with the truth of God's Word.
4. Spend time reading Ephesians 4:26–27, Matthew 6:14–15, and Hebrews 12:14–15 this week. Ask God to deepen your understanding of forgiveness, mercy, and grace.
5. Ask the Lord to fill your heart with His love so that your responses reflect His mercy rather than anger or judgment. Look for one opportunity this week to extend forgiveness, encouragement, or grace to someone else.

Connecting the Sessions

Session	Focus of Revelation
1	Obedience keeps us walking within God's protective boundaries. As we submit to Him, we position ourselves to experience the abundant life Jesus promised.
2	Our authority comes from Jesus. As we submit to God's authority, we can confidently stand against the enemy and walk in the victory Christ has already won.
3	Discover how inner vows formed through pain can influence your life and how God's truth brings healing, freedom, and restoration.

Notes

ADVANCED BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS

John 10:10

Session 4: The Occult

Session 4 of 5

Session 4 Overview

Jesus came to give us abundant life, but the enemy continually seeks to deceive people by drawing them away from God's truth. Throughout Scripture, God clearly warns His people against seeking supernatural guidance or power through any source other than Him. What may appear harmless or entertaining can become an open door to spiritual deception and bondage.

In this session, we examine the biblical warnings concerning occult practices and discover the importance of wholehearted devotion to Christ. As we renounce every counterfeit source of spiritual power and invite the Holy Spirit to search our lives, we learn to walk in the freedom, protection, and abundant life that Jesus alone provides.

The Anchor Scripture

John 10:10 (NKJV) — The Series Anchor Verse

"The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

Key Scriptures

Deuteronomy 18:9–14 (NKJV)

"There shall not be found among you anyone who... practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer... For all who do these things are an abomination to the Lord..."

John 14:6 (NKJV)

"Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.'"

Acts 19:18–20 (NKJV)
"Many who had believed came confessing and telling their deeds. Also, many of those who had practiced magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all... So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed."

Revelation 21:8 (NKJV)
"But the cowardly, unbelieving... sorcerers... shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone..."

Revelation 22:15 (NKJV)
"But outside are... sorcerers... and whoever loves and practices a lie."

Key Themes

1. God Alone Is the Source of Spiritual Truth

God desires His people to seek Him alone for wisdom, guidance, and revelation. Any attempt to gain supernatural knowledge or power apart from Him leads away from His truth and into deception.

2. The Occult Opens Doors to Spiritual Bondage

Practices such as fortune-telling, astrology, witchcraft, séances, tarot cards, and other occult activities are forbidden in Scripture because they invite spiritual deception rather than God's guidance. Even subtle involvement can become an opportunity for the enemy to influence our lives.

3. Jesus Has Complete Authority Over Every Power of Darkness

Believers do not need to fear the enemy because Jesus has already defeated him through His death and resurrection. As we remain rooted in Christ and His Word, we walk in the victory He has already secured.

4. Spiritual Discernment Protects Our Hearts and Homes

The Holy Spirit helps believers recognize influences that do not honor Christ. As we prayerfully examine our lives, homes, and possessions, we can remove anything that draws us away from wholehearted devotion to God.

5. Repentance Brings Freedom and Restoration

When believers confess sin, renounce every counterfeit spiritual practice, and turn fully to Christ, God's grace brings cleansing, freedom, and renewed fellowship with Him. Walking in His truth keeps us living in the abundant life Jesus promised.

Reflection Questions

📝 Reflection Questions

1. Have you ever been exposed to practices, entertainment, or beliefs that sought spiritual knowledge apart from God? How has Scripture shaped your understanding of those influences?
2. Are there any areas of your life where you may have unknowingly placed your trust in something other than Christ for guidance, protection, or direction?
3. How does knowing that Jesus has complete authority over every power of darkness give you confidence to walk in freedom rather than fear?
4. Have you invited the Holy Spirit to search your home and personal possessions for anything that may not honor God? What might He be asking you to remove?
5. What practical steps can you take this week to deepen your trust in God's Word as your only source of spiritual truth?

Personal Application

✅ Application Steps

1. Prayerfully read Deuteronomy 18:9–14 and Acts 19:18–20 this week. Ask the Holy Spirit to deepen your understanding of why God warns His people against occult practices.
2. Invite the Lord to search your heart, home, and possessions. If He reveals anything that does not honor Him or encourages spiritual deception, remove it completely.

3. Spend time thanking Jesus for His victory over every power of darkness. Declare His truth over your life and remember that your security is found in Him alone.
4. If you have ever participated in occult practices or sought guidance apart from God, confess it to the Lord, receive His forgiveness, and thank Him for the freedom He has provided through the cross.
5. Commit yourself to seeking God's direction through prayer, His Word, and the leading of the Holy Spirit. Ask Him to strengthen your discernment so you can recognize truth and reject every counterfeit.

Connecting the Sessions

Session	Focus of Revelation
1	Obedience keeps us walking within God's protective boundaries. As we submit to Him, we position ourselves to experience the abundant life Jesus promised.
2	Our authority comes from Jesus. As we submit to God's authority, we can confidently stand against the enemy and walk in the victory Christ has already won.
3	Discover how inner vows formed through pain can influence your life and how God's truth brings healing, freedom, and restoration.
4	Learn why God warns against occult practices and how complete surrender to Christ breaks every spiritual stronghold.

Notes

ADVANCED BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS

John 10:10

Session 5: Soul Ties

Session 5 of 5

Session 5 Overview

God created us for relationships. Healthy relationships strengthen us, encourage us, and reflect His love. However, unhealthy emotional attachments and ungodly connections can become strongholds that hinder our spiritual growth and keep us from experiencing the abundant life Jesus promised.

In this final session, we examine the biblical principle of soul ties and learn how unhealthy attachments can influence our lives. As we surrender every relationship to Christ and allow the Holy Spirit to reveal areas that need healing, we discover the freedom that comes from being fully devoted to God and walking in His truth.

The Anchor Scripture

John 10:10 (NKJV) — The Series Anchor Verse

"The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

Key Scriptures

John 10:10 (NKJV)

"The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

1 Corinthians 6:18–20 (NKJV)

"Flee sexual immorality... Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you... For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's."

2 Corinthians 6:14–18 (NKJV)
"Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers... Therefore 'Come out from among them and be separate,' says the Lord."

2 Corinthians 7:1 (NKJV)
"But the cowardly, unbelieving... sorcerers... shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone..."

James 4:7–8 (NKJV)
"Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you."

Hebrews 11:6 (NKJV)
"But without faith it is impossible to please Him... He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him."

Key Themes

1. God Designed Relationships to Reflect His Love

God created people to live in loving relationships with Him and with one another. Healthy relationships draw us closer to Christ, while unhealthy attachments can distract us from wholehearted devotion to Him.

2. Unhealthy Soul Ties Can Lead to Bondage

A soul tie is an unhealthy emotional attachment that influences our thoughts, decisions, or identity. These connections may develop through sinful relationships, misplaced trust, or unhealthy dependence on people, organizations, or other influences.

3. Jesus Brings Freedom from Every Unhealthy Connection

Christ came to set us free from every form of spiritual bondage. As the Holy Spirit reveals unhealthy attachments, we can surrender them to God and experience healing, restoration, and renewed freedom.

4. Submission to God Leads to Victory

The pathway to abundant life begins with submitting ourselves completely to God. As we resist the enemy and stand firmly in God's truth, we close the doors through which the enemy seeks to steal, kill, and destroy.

5. Walking Closely with God Sustains Our Freedom

Freedom is not merely the absence of bondage—it is the ongoing pursuit of God. As we draw near to Him through prayer, His Word, and obedience, He continues to transform our hearts and strengthen our walk with Him.

Reflection Questions

📝 Reflection Questions

1. Are there any relationships or emotional attachments that have become more influential in your life than your relationship with Christ?
2. Have you placed your trust, identity, or security in a person, organization, or circumstance instead of fully trusting God?
3. James 4:7–8 calls believers to submit to God, resist the devil, and draw near to Him. Which of these areas do you sense God strengthening in your life today?
4. Is the Holy Spirit revealing any unhealthy connections or patterns that need to be surrendered to Him?
5. Looking back over this series, what truth has most transformed your understanding of living the abundant life Jesus promised?

Personal Application

✅ Application Steps

1. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal any unhealthy soul ties or emotional attachments that may be hindering your relationship with Christ. Write down anything He brings to your attention.
2. Prayerfully surrender every unhealthy relationship, dependency, or misplaced trust to the Lord. Thank Him for the freedom He has provided through the cross.
3. Read James 4:7–8 each day this week. Practice intentionally submitting every area of your life to God, resisting the enemy's lies, and drawing near to Christ.

4. Spend time thanking God for the abundant life Jesus purchased for you. Ask Him to help you remain rooted in His truth rather than being influenced by fear, deception, or unhealthy attachments.
5. Review the truths from each session of this series. Ask the Lord to show you one practical step you can continue applying so that you increasingly walk in the freedom, victory, and abundant life He desires for you.

Connecting the Sessions

Session	Focus of Revelation
1	Obedience keeps us walking within God's protective boundaries. As we submit to Him, we position ourselves to experience the abundant life Jesus promised.
2	Our authority comes from Jesus. As we submit to God's authority, we can confidently stand against the enemy and walk in the victory Christ has already won.
3	Discover how inner vows formed through pain can influence your life and how God's truth brings healing, freedom, and restoration.
4	Learn why God warns against occult practices and how complete surrender to Christ breaks every spiritual stronghold.
5	Understand the influence of soul ties and discover how Jesus brings healing, freedom, and healthy relationships that honor Him.

Notes